

Monthly Resource EVENT!

Wednesday March 20th

10:00am – Noon

Where: The Salvation Army Steel Valley Corps 104 E 9th Avenue, Homestead, PA 15120 (please enter through the RED door at the back of the building on E Locust Way)

Everyone is Welcome & All Services/Information are FREE!

Who Will Be Here:

Rainbow Kitchen Community Services: providing information about programs and services offered; other available programs and resources in the community

AARP: providing program information for individuals 55+

Affordable Connectivity Program: providing free cell phones or tablets to qualified individuals

Ameri Health Caritas/Community Health Choices: managed care program for dually eligible individuals and individuals with physical disabilities who are 21 and older

Animal Friends: program information and free pet food

Big Burgh: providing information about their online resource guide

Deb's Clothing Closet: providing free clothing for men & children

Dress for Success: providing clothing, accessories & employment assistance to women

Duquesne Light Duquesne Light Universal Services/Holy Family Institute: providing information about utility assistance programs

New PA Project Education Fund: register individuals to vote, provide education about the issues in their neighborhoods and mobilize people to vote

Pittsburgh Community Services Inc: providing program information

Peoples Gas: providing information about utility assistance and programs

Pinnacle Treatment Center: providing program information about assistance with drug/alcohol recovery

Pittsburgh Community Services Inc: providing program information

Salvation Army: Providing program information

Steel Valley Family Center: providing information about programs and services offered

The Open Door: providing supportive housing and related services to improve the health of high-risk, chronically homeless people living with HIV.

Women for a Healthy Environment: educate and empower community members to act as ambassadors about environmental risks to help individuals make healthy choices for themselves and their families

AND more! Hope to see you there!

